Multimillion-Dollar Renovation and Name Change Now Complete at Atlanta Marriott Northeast/Emory Area

ATLANTA, GA (April 12, 2019) – The Atlanta Marriott Northeast/Emory Area, formerly Atlanta Marriott Century Center/Emory Area is excited to announce completion of a multi-million dollar top-to-bottom renovation. Guests will enter a newly designed great room and lobby featuring comfortable seating areas for conversation and social engagement, as well as easy access to the all-new M Club.

“We are excited to present our new look to both past guests and new guests to our hotel,” stated Tim Michaud, General Manager. “Combined with our friendly and hospitable staff, we expect to provide the most excellent guest experience in our market.”

Centrally located on the main lobby level, the all-new M Club provides travelers an ideal space to work, recharge, connect and relax. Complimentary services in the M Club include daily hot breakfast and evening service with hors d’oeuvres; Starbucks coffee; and a variety of cold beverages and on-the-go snacks, to name just a few. The M Club also features complimentary premium Wi-Fi, and wine and beer are available for purchase.

Our revitalized Health Club offers beautiful views overlooking our pool and terrace area and features a variety of cardio and weight machines, workout equipment and on-demand fitness videos. We’re excited to provide two Peloton bikes as well.

Additionally, all of our guest rooms received new wood flooring, 55-inch mounted TVs, contemporary furnishings, Serta® Perfect Sleeper® mattresses, sliding barn doors for the bathrooms, and walk-in tiled showers.

Also included in the renovation is our redesigned restaurant with expanded private dining room, communal tables allowing for better interaction with friends or colleagues after work, and a fresh new menu, as well as a new name – Central Rail Kitchen & Bar – which pays homage to Atlanta’s railroad history.

Located north of Downtown Atlanta near Emory University, the Atlanta Marriott Northeast/Emory Area offers more than 22,000 square feet of newly renovated, flexible meeting space.
