

Falecia Stewart

Falecia joined MUST in 2018 as Sr. Director of Housing. She is a person of excellence who works tirelessly on behalf of our clients and mission and exemplifies MUST's values and servant leadership. She has earned the respect of her colleagues, clients, and our community. Falecia has extensive knowledge of housing and homelessness as a result of her 25+ years of non-profit experience, including 15 years with the Housing Authority of Fulton County where she served as both Chief Operating Officer and Executive Director. She also served as Deputy Director of HOPE Atlanta. Falecia has accomplished many remarkable milestones for MUST since 2018, including securing 1.6 million in funds to help during the Covid pandemic. Her leadership has empowered our organization to reach more and serve more while also securing resources to do so. We are blessed by Falecia's steadfast leadership.
