

Google Pay Product Guide

Google Pay is a contactless payment option for both Android and Apple users, although functionality differs for the two.

Payments from Android users accepted anywhere this emblem is displayed:

Android Users:

Compatible Devices:

Android devices operating on Lollipop (5.0) or Higher

Add Card to Google Pay:

1. Go to Google Play Store
2. Download Google Play
3. Add Card
4. Once verified, the card will now be available to use.

Common Error Messages:

“Google Pay Cannot be used”

“Google Pay is unable to verify device”

“You can no longer use Google Pay on this device”

-These errors indicate that the software version is not compatible and might need to be updated.

Functions:

-In Store Purchases

-In App Purchases

-Person to Person funds transfer

-Google Playstore purchases

iPhone/iPad Users:

Google Pay is available to Apple users operating iOS 7 or higher

Functions:

-Person to Person funds transfer