Texas Renaissance Festival School Days Program Announces 1st Annual Mariachi Contest

Mariachi competition will be held November 4

Todd Mission, TX (March 3, 2020) – The Texas Renaissance Festival School Days program has announced the addition of a student Mariachi contest to the competition schedule that will be held on November 4, 2020.

“We are thrilled with the addition of the mariachi contest this year, we feel that it will add another level of excitement to the experience of School Days at TRF,” said Kim Byrant, School Days Coordinator.

The annual School Days program at TRF will be held over two days, Nov. 4 and 5, 2020 on the grounds of the Texas Renaissance Festival. The event is not open to the public, but it is open to public, private and homeschool students elementary through high school.

The two-day event features a variety of competitions including theatre, trebuchet, costume, choral, orchestra, band, art, essay and photography. TRF shops and food vendors are open, while performers and cast members are on hand to entertain the students, teachers, administrators and chaperones.
