Texas Renaissance Festival Announces Plans Multi-Year Expansion of Enchanted Forest

January 17, 2020 (Todd Mission, TX) – The Texas Renaissance Festival (TRF) has announced plans for a multi-year expansion project of the Enchanted Forest area that will begin with the 2020 festival season. Two larger planned anchor attractions for the expansion area include a Pirate Museum and giant slide. A favorite festival shop, The Broom Closet and Enchanted Realm will also make its home there, and a music stage is planned for smaller music and acts that can be enjoyed by a more intimate audience.

Applications for vendors and attractions for the area are currently being accepted by TRF Vendor Coordinator Jennifer Pierce. “We are excited to move forward with the expansion, and we are looking for 25 new vendors and/or attractions to join our TRF family for that area,” said Pierce. Applicants are asked to send a complete business proposal and photos and/or samples of their merchandise, art, demonstration piece they would like to bring to the Texas Renaissance Festival to vendors@texrenfest.com or access the 2020 Vendor Application online. Mailed proposals and samples may be sent to the attention of Jennifer Pierce, c/o Texas Renaissance Festival, 21778 FM 1774, Todd Mission, TX 77363.

About the Texas Renaissance Festival

The Texas Renaissance Festival is the nation’s largest Renaissance event. Each year over 450,000 patrons enter through the gates of the festival into a 16th Century European Village where performers immerse you in the enchantment of the village, there are 21 stages of music and stage acts, 400 shoppes, artisans, and a world tour for the taste buds that of course include turkey legs! 2020 TRF season dates are October 3 – November 29.
