

Texas Renaissance Festival

New Ambassadors Info Sheet

The TRF Ambassadors promote the Texas Renaissance Festival and voluntarily serve the communities surrounding the Village and Campgrounds of New Market on behalf of the King. The Ambassadors aim to make the Village and surrounding communities more magical through community service projects, marketing support, and positive representation of the Texas Renaissance Festival. This select group is capped at 100 people per season. Ambassadors are asked to re-apply each season.

Requirements

- Must have a minimum of five (5) years of experience at the Texas Renaissance Festival.
- Must have an active presence on social media (at least 2 channels preferred).
- Must have at least one garb (costume) outfit to wear at events
- Preferred previous volunteer experience
- Do you have ideas that you can bring to the group with regards to future activities or events?
- Are you able to attend at least two events pre-season and during season?
- Review the handbook to see if being a TRF Ambassador is for you?

How to Apply

- Submit a one (1) minute video covering all the aspects of the requirements listed above.
- If you can't do a video a PowerPoint presentation with captions covering the above requirements is acceptable.
- Show us your personality. We want people who will win people over with their enthusiasm for the festival!
- If you have more than one garb outfit, wear your favorite one and show photos of your others.
- Submit your video/presentation between February 24 and March 9.
