Monthly Management Report

June 2018

Workplace Disability Awareness

On June 6th the Workforce Partners' Council in collaboration with the Cobb Chamber of Commerce and Georgia Department of Labor sponsored a Workplace Disability Awareness Breakfast. There were 25 employers and job seekers in attendance. The event provided a panel of agencies that served individuals with disabilities. These agencies provided information on resources and services available to assist employers with hiring or assisting employees with disabilities. Also included on the panel were WorkSource Cobb, Georgia Department of Labor, and Kroger. WorkSource Cobb shared information regarding business services and strategies offered to employers to assist with recruitment and hiring. Georgia Department of Labor shared information regarding the tax credit program for businesses. Kroger shared insight into their corporate culture of striving to recruit, hire and help advance employees with disabilities. The survey responses received were all "Excellent" and "Good" from those in attendance. The Workforce Partners' Council hopes to make this an ongoing event.

Construction Ready Graduation

The Construction Ready program celebrated its 15th Cobb graduating class on June 22. This also marked the 50th graduating class for the whole metro area since the program first began in June of 2014 at Westside Works, CEFGA and its partners have graduated 762 metro Atlanta residents and placed 729 into full time careers in Atlanta's thriving construction industry. CEFGA estimates that more than $15 million in wages have been earned by Construction Ready graduates throughout metro Atlanta.

All of the 15 Cobb graduates received job offers at graduation.

GED Graduation

GED graduates were honored at an annual graduation on June 23.
